Just so you know I have been on the phone for the last hour with rendell, janice jacobs office and verious people in haiti dealing with these orphans. It seems that fewer of them were processed than we originally thought and these american women who have been taking care of them are understandabl y emotionally attached. Rendell has expressed frustration but has finally come to understand the importance of ensuring that the paperwork is correct. So we were able to let him board the plane with a lot fewer children than he originally thought. Will keep u updated.
