TELECON

Mr. Robert Evans/The Secretary

October 16, 1975

Time: 7:25 p.m.

RELEASED IN FULL

K: What are you doing on the West Coast?

E: I am on the East Coast. I just got back from Paris.

K: My people told me you were on the West Coast. Can I call you tomorrow because I am on the way out.

E: When are you leaving for China?

K: At noon tomorrow.

E: I need your secretary to send a cable to me from you. A lunch is being given in my honor.

K: When.

E: On Thursday, -- can I get a cable from you. I know you can't attend.

K: Sure.

E: Who do I speak to on that?

K: Jerry Bremer.

E: Good. I will be at the hotel at 8:00 tomorrow morning. Can you call me at 7:30 in the morning?

K: Well, can I call you at 9:30?

E: I will be out. Can I call you sometime tomorrow? When are you getting back from China?

K: Can you call me at 11:30 at the White House.

E: Exactly at 11:30.

K: I will leave a note that I am to be called out of a meeting.

E: Good.

K: O.K.
