

2 FAM 420 OPENING A POST

2 FAM 421 TIMING

(TL:GEN-273; 09-14-1991)

(State Only)

a. Bureaus requesting authorization to open a post should formally enter into the process as early as possible to allow for inclusions of resource requests into future budget submissions.

b. In cases where this is not feasible, the requesting bureau should be prepared to work closely with:

(1) The Bureau of Finance and Management Policy (FMP) to determine the availability of funds; and

(2) The Bureau of Personnel to determine the availability of personnel.

2 FAM 422 IMPLEMENTATION OF FINAL DECISION

2 FAM 422.1 Establishment of Post

2 FAM 422.1-1 General Policy

(TL:GEN-164; 01-09-1974)

(State Only)

When a decision to open a post has been reached, the acceptance of the foreign government is necessary and must precede any public disclosure of the proposed action.

2 FAM 422.1-2 Missions

(TL:GEN-164; 01-09-1974)

(State Only)

a. Normally, a diplomatic mission is officially established as of the date of the ceremonial presentation of credentials by the chief of mission to the host government, although international comity permits the establishment of a mission after a mere exchange of notes.

b. The regional bureau is responsible for the prompt issuance of any instructions to the chief of mission designate which are necessary for the establishment of the mission.

2 FAM 422.1-3 Consulates and Branch Offices

(TL:GEN-164; 01-09-1974)

(State Only)

a. In the case of a consulate, consulate general, branch or special office, the regional bureau instructs the diplomatic mission in the host country to request personnel actions, instructs the mission to request provisional recognition. (NOTE: When a consular district is delimited to include more than one state, the consent of each state is required for the commencement of the performance of consular functions. (See subchapter 2 FAM 450.))

b. The date on which such a post is officially established is determined by the supervisory post or mission (with the concurrence of the regional bureau) and usually coincides with the arrival at the post of the officer-in-charge. The host government is informed of this date. The principal officer is requested to open the post to the public as soon as the acquisition of suitable quarters, arrival of personnel, etc., permit, and to communicate such opening date in advance to the supervisory post or mission and to the Department. They supervisory mission communicates this date to the host government.

2 FAM 422.1-4 Consular Agencies

(TL:GEN-164; 01-09-1974)

(State Only)

a. In the case of a consular agency, the regional bureau instructs the supervising post to nominate a suitable candidate, acceptable to the host government, for the position of consular agent (see 3 FAM 992.1). Following the requisite personnel actions, the regional bureau instructs the mission to request provisional recognition.

b. The date on which a consular agency is opened officially is determined by the supervising post, and usually coincides with the date the consular agent takes the oath of office. The host government is informed of this date. (A consular agency may not be open to the public simultaneously with a Foreign Service post in the same city or town; that is, one of the two must close as of the day prior to the official opening date of the other.)

2 FAM 422.2 Administrative Procedures

(TL:GEN-164; 01-09-1974)

(State Only)

a. When the final decision has been made to open a post, the regional bureau notifies affected posts and offices of the pertinent facts and probable effective departmental date of the action.

b. Affected offices take prompt action on the decision and give the regional bureau timely information as to any instructions which are relayed to the field. This responsibility includes the coordinating and forwarding of timely information and instructions to the posts affected, such as:

(1) Economic, political, and intelligence reporting requirements and establishment of other agency programs;

(2) Consular services or activities to be performed or reassigned; consular district delimitations; security coverage;

(3) Assignment of personnel (including fiscal), including pertinent information about travel arrangements, recognition, provisional allowances, provisional wage scale (FSL);

(4) Provisional allotments of funds and authority to incur necessary operating expenses;

(5) Lease or purchase of appropriate office and residential quarters (including furnishings, if any);

(6) Shipments of current publications, regulations (for example, Foreign Affairs Manual) and/or instructions, vehicles, supplies and equipment, including cryptographic and classified materials, signs, coats of arms, seals, etc.; and

(7) Routing of communications by courier, pouch, mail, and telegraph; records management.

c. The regional bureau is responsible for coordinating all activities in the opening of a post. The following suggested checklist may be reproduced (with names, telephone extensions, etc.) and used by the bureau, although the items listed are not necessarily in order of priority nor applicable in each case (see 2 FAM 422 Exhibit 422.2).

d. The reports and responsibilities listed in subchapter 2 FAM 090 indicate the administrative action which must be taken, as soon as applicable or necessary, after establishment of a post. Subchapter 2 FAM 090 serves as a guide in complying with the post reporting and action responsibilities. It does not include unscheduled reports nor does it list all administrative responsibilities.

e. Responsible officers in the field are expected to draw from their experience (as well as refer to other chapters and volumes of the manual) for whatever additional guidance they may require. The relative priorities of the reports and actions are determined by the principal officer or the supervisory post. However, any special instructions which the Department sends to the field normally are given higher priority.
