

12 FAH-8 H-240 PROGRAM MANAGEMENT REVIEW (PMR)

(TL:RSP-01; 11-01-2001)

12 FAM-8 H-241 GENERAL

a. The Facilities Protection Division (DS/CIS/PSP/FPD) is responsible for managing the Residential Security Program. Due to the large amount of money invested in this program, periodic program management reviews (PMRs) are conducted to confirm how effectively RSPs are being administered and that the funds are being used judiciously for the purposes for which they were allotted. The PMR team will usually evaluate all DS/CIS/PSP/FPD supported programs while visiting a post. The team will usually consist of a program officer from DS/CIS/PSP/FPD who will serve as the team leader and may include contractors who will assist in performing the review.

b. 12 FAH-8 Appendix IV contains a sample PMR checklist that can be used by the RSO and/or PSO to evaluate the current state of the RSP.

c. Residential security files and/or records and post's residential security concerns should be available for the program review team.
