13 FAM 273.3 Definition

(Applies to Foreign Service Employees Only)

"Chief(s) of mission" in this context means the chief of mission to a foreign country, and, in keeping with the intent of the Congress, principal officers of special interest sections, consulates general, and consulates not under the direct supervision of a U.S. diplomatic post.

13 FAM 273.4 Procedures

(CT:TPD-001; 05-20-2004)
(Uniform State/USAID)
(Applies to Foreign Service Employees Only)

a. Chiefs of mission (as defined above) at posts where English is neither the primary nor primary-alternate language (see 13 FAM 222.1) will submit such reports.

b. The Director General of the Foreign Service (M/DGHR) will remind chiefs of mission of this requirement by telegram approximately four months following their arrival at post.

c. Reports are to be submitted by telegram to the Director General for transmittal to the respective congressional committees. Chiefs of mission will be responsible for ensuring that such reports reach the Department at least two weeks prior to the six-month date mentioned in the Act.

d. These reports should be concise but must address separately the language competence of the chief of mission and of the U.S. staff, including personnel of agencies other than the Department of State assigned to the mission and constituent posts, where appropriate. Specific reference to the speaking or reading proficiency rating (whether M/FSI-tested or self-assessed) of the chief of mission, and of appropriate key members of the staff should be cited. Comments on the use of the post language program as a tool for improving language competence of personnel at post would also be helpful. Reports should be unclassified and should conform to the format in 13 FAM Exhibit 234 and 13 FAM Exhibit 273.4.
