TELECON

Mr. Sisco/The Secretary

July 18, 1975

Time: 7:25 p.m.

RELEASED IN PART

B6

K: I just saw a cable saying a personal message from me to Sadat has been delivered. What is this?

S: I haven't the foggiest notion. The only thing was the two telegrams last night.

K: Will you check on it?

S: Yes. The maps haven't arrived yet. They will get here later. Do you want to meet with Hermann again?

K: When is he leaving?

S: 2:00.

K: I have the President at 9:45 how about 9:15 or would later in the morning be better for you?

S: Whatever is most convenient for you.

K: How about 11:00?

S: Fine. I would feel more comfortable if we had the maps in front of us.

K: He is making an overlay?

S: Yes. You will see the overlay and the map tomorrow.

K: Do we have a chance to get it accepted?

S: No. We are in the ball park enough so they will come back with something, however.

K: In the south we are close enough.

S: Your initial assessment is correct.

K: Hermann's assessment that something is mean about this is correct too.

S: We have seen so much of this we can't get angry now.

K: If I had been tougher in Bonn we might have done better.

S: I think you handled it just right. You are seeing Jaws tonight?

K: How do you know?

S: I keep track of things. Don't have a shark bite you.
