Subject: This evening

I just got Huma's message about dinner. My blackberry died and I was recharging it so didn't have it with me. I would have loved to have had dinner with you and Melanne and had a chance to catch up. Our meetings went well this afternoon.

Hope the rest of the trip goes well. Look forward to seeing you next week. I'm heading down to Mexico on Wednesday afternoon to work with Carlos on the strategic communications issues.

Safe travels.

FYI, I will be going to Doha this weekend to meet with Al Jazeera. Also plan to meet with CENTCOM and then onto Kabul for two days of meetings. Back next Thursday.

Subject: Update on your trip to Doha

Judith,

Below is a rough outline of your trip to Doha, as it currently stands.

LOGISTICS:

You are currently scheduled to arrive in Doha on May 1 at 6:30 and depart May 2 at 7 pm. Traveling with you will be Kitty DiMartino, Joe Mellott, Mark Davidson, and GSEC's LTC Eric Schoennauer. Dana Smith will fly in from the Media Hub in Dubai to meet you in Doha.

Key events:

Dinner with Al Jazeera (AJ) staff: AJ Director General Wadah Khanfar will host a dinner on May 1 with senior AJ staff, including AJ English Managing Director Tony Burman. We expect 7 people on the AJ side and 6 on ours. (The dinner is scheduled for 8pm in a private room in the Four Seasons; post is making reservations for the party to stay in the same hotel.)

Meeting with AJ Board Members at AJ Headquarters: This will give you an opportunity to engage the Qatari leadership of the network. Discussion topics should include the mid-May Washington visit by some AJ Board representatives. We expect Wadah Khanfar to also participate in this meeting.

(TBC) Meeting with Prime Minister Hamad bin Jasim bin Jabir al-Thani (HBJ): As PM, HBJ is the ultimate Qatari authority on AJ. The meeting will also allow you to raise bi-lateral engagement issues as necessary. We expect to know in a few days if HBJ will be available.

Meetings with CENTCOM: You will meet with CENTCOM staff at Al Udeid airbase just outside of Doha. They will brief you on their [redacted] within their AOR, but with particular focus on activities in [redacted] B1
[redacted] 1.4(D)

MEDIA:

Feature on AJ Arabic: 15 minute "feature" piece filmed at AJ Studios on the Administration's commitment to engagement with Muslim communities worldwide. This will be a good opportunity to highlight the Entrepreneurship

Summit. We can expect you to also get questions on PD programs in Afghanistan, Pakistan, and Iraq. You will be interviewed by one of AJ's "top" journalists; exactly who is still to be determined. The interview will be in English with simultaneous interpretation into Arabic. It will likely air a number of times on AJ.

Feature on AJ English: This would be a second 15 minute "feature" piece similar to the one for AJ Arabic. If we are pressed for time we can consider just doing the AJ Arabic feature.

Roundtable with local Qatari media: This will include journalists from a number of local Qatari media outlets. This is another opportunity to talk about the Administration's commitment to engagement, but with a more targeted focus on bilateral engagement and exchange programs.

Note – Wadah Khanfar has been closely engaged on, if not driving, the portions of your program that deal with AJ. Post reports that he is very pleased to have this opportunity for you to engage with AJ leadership in Doha.

Best,

Ann
