Since we confirmed this call, Jeff had a spoke with Adel/Saud. Here is readout of from jeff, and following is callsheet. I think your call just needs to be very brief touch base, reiterating general point and saying jeff will continue to be in touch

From jeff: Spoke in person with Saud and Adel on this issue.

The Secretary's Call Sheet for
Saudi Arabia's Foreign Minister Prince Saud
Purpose of Call: To inform Prince Saud of expected Wikileaks leaks.

1. Wishing King Abdullah Well: First let me convey my best wishes for a rapid and full recovery for His Majesty King Abdullah. Bill and I hope to see him sometime in future (we offered but they declines for Sat). Our thoughts are with him as he r

1. Wikileaks: I deeply regret the likely upcoming Wikileaks disclosure (which could come as early as November 26).

1. This appears to be the result of an illegal act in which a fully cleared intelligence officer stole information and gave it to a website. The person responsible will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. We have taken aggressive measures

1. The U.S. will maintain its longstanding practice of not commenting publicly on classified material alleged to have been leaked. If asked publicly about how the leak of material affects our bilateral relationship, we will reiterate our strong com

1. This is the kind of sensitive information we fear may be released: details of private conversations with your government on Iraq, Iran, and Afghanistan.

1. I seek your help in preventing Wikileaks from undermining our mutual national interests. The President and I are committed to deepening our bilateral relationship.

1. (If raised) If Saudi Arabia Requests the Relevant Cables: I will have our ambassador come in to brief you on specifics.

Background: King Abdullah arrived in New York November 22 for treatment of what the Saudi government has described as a slipped disk and adjacent blood clot.
